The Andhra Pradesh NEET UG Counselling Board follows a structured sequence for admission under the state quota and private medical colleges. Below is a detailed breakdown of each stage:

1. Release of Counselling Information Brochure

The counselling process begins when the the official Counselling Information Brochure are uploaded on the state portal (<https://drntr.uhsap.in/index/>). The brochure contains:

- ✓ Eligibility rules.
- ✓ Detailed timeline of events.
- ✓ Security deposit rules and refund conditions.
- ✓ List of required documents.

⚠ Candidates must carefully go through this brochure before registering, as it sets the framework for the entire process.

2. Online Registration

Candidates create an account on the Andhra Pradesh NEET UG counselling portal. Registration is done in two steps:

- ✓ Part 1: Basic details like NEET UG roll number, name, category, contact information.
- ✓ Part 2: Upload scanned documents and pay the non-refundable application fee (₹10,620/- for all categories of Andhra Pradesh).

⚠ Important: Incomplete registrations or failure to pay the application fee will lead to rejection.

3. Payment of Security Deposit & Choice Filling

Depending on the type of seat (government, private, management, NRI), a refundable security deposit may be required. After the deposit, candidates are allowed to enter their choices of courses and colleges in order of preference. The portal allows modification until the last date, after which candidates must lock their choices.

Registration Fee	10,620/- (for all Categories)
Security Deposit	10,000/- (Govt. Colleges), 1,00,000/- (Pvt. Colleges)

⚠ Note: It is advised to fill a large number of choices to increase chances of allotment.

4. Publication of Merit List & Provisional Seat Matrix

The counselling board publishes a provisional merit list of registered candidates based on NEET UG rank and state eligibility. Simultaneously, the provisional seat matrix is released, showing available seats in government and private colleges, categorized by course, college and quota.

5. Seat Allotment & Result Declaration

Based on merit, reservation rules and candidate preferences, the counselling board conducts seat allotment for Round 1 which is published on the portal. Candidates allotted a seat must:

- ✓ Download their allotment letter.
- ✓ Report physically to the allotted college within the given time frame.
- ✓ Submit all original documents for verification.
- ✓ Pay tuition fees and complete bond formalities.

Note: Failure to report will lead to cancellation of the seat and forfeiture of the security deposit in some cases.

6. Subsequent Rounds & Upgradation

After Round 1, unfilled or surrendered seats move to Round 2, followed by Round 3 and finally a Stray Vacancy Round. Rules for participation in subsequent rounds include:

- ✓ Candidates who joined in earlier rounds may opt for upgradation.
- ✓ Fresh registration may be required for new participants.
- ✓ A fresh security deposit might be applicable depending on state rules and the round.

Note: The final Stray Vacancy Round is the last opportunity to secure leftover seats, usually conducted at the institutional level under state supervision.
